

Here are the champs! The 1955 American Royal Grand Champion Carlot. Highest bidder in the annual auction was the Golden Ox Restaurant—“Where the Steak Is Born!”

"Where the Steak Is Born" . . . and where steaks from the Grand Champion Carlot of the 1955 American Royal were served!
The Golden Ox is located right down in the stockyards in Kansas City—where the steak is born. With a reputation for serving only the best beefsteak, it was only natural for the Golden Ox to bid highest for the best of the best—the Grand Champion Carlot of the American Royal!
